Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Section 74)

This form is effective from 1 February 2019

ABN: 86 504 771 740

Name of village: Ormiston Rise

Important information for the prospective resident

- The Village Comparison Document gives general information about the retirement village accommodation, facilities and services, including the general costs of moving into, living in and leaving the retirement village. This makes it easier for you to compare retirement villages.
- The Retirement Villages Act 1999 requires a retirement village scheme operator to:
 - provide a copy of the Village Comparison Document to a prospective resident of the retirement village within seven days of receiving a request.
 - include a copy of the Village Comparison Document with any promotional material given to a person, other than through a general distribution (e.g. mail-out).
 - publish the Village Comparison Document on the village's website so that the document, or a link to it appears prominently on each page of the website that contains, or has a link to, marketing material for the village.
- You can access a copy of this Village Comparison Document on the village website at ormistonrise.com.au
- All amounts in this document are GST-inclusive, unless stated otherwise where that is permitted by law.

Notice for prospective residents

Before you decide whether to live in a retirement village, you should:

- Seek independent legal advice about the retirement village contract – there are different types of contracts and they can be complex.
- Find out the financial commitments involved – in particular, you should understand and consider ingoing costs, ongoing fees and charges (which can increase) and how much it will cost you when you leave the village permanently.
- Consider any impacts to any pensions, rate subsidies and rebates you currently receive.
- Consider what questions to ask the village manager before signing a contract.
- Consider whether retirement village living provides the lifestyle that is right for you. Moving into a retirement village is very different to moving into a new house. It involves buying into a village with communal facilities where usually some of the costs of this lifestyle are deferred until you leave the village. These deferred costs when you leave your unit may be significant.
- Seek further information and advice to help with making a decision that is right for you. Some useful contacts are listed at the end of this document, including:

	The village operator reserves the right to grant such occupancy rights in respect of units and apartments as the village operator determines in its sole discretion, whether governed by the Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Q) or not.

Part 11 – Exit fees – when you leave the village

A resident may have to pay an exit fee to the operator when they leave their unit or when the right to reside in their unit is sold. This is also referred to as a 'deferred management fee' (DMF).

11.1 Do residents pay an exit fee when they permanently leave their unit? If yes: list all exit fee options that may apply to new contracts	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes – all residents pay an exit fee calculated using the same formula <input type="checkbox"/> Yes – all new residents pay an exit fee but the way this is worked out may vary depending on each resident's residence contract <input type="checkbox"/> No exit fee <input type="checkbox"/> Other Exit fees are calculated as a percentage (set out in the table below) of the Standard Ingoing Contribution applying to you, according to your Exit Fee Period, regardless of the ingoing contribution you actually pay. In this document, "Exit Fee Period" means the period from (and including) the commencement date of your lease to (and including) the later of:

	(a) the date you vacate the unit, including ceasing to reside in the unit pursuant to termination of your lease, removing all your belongings from the unit and returning keys and remotes/controllers to the village operator; and (b) if your relative (within the meaning of the Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Qld)) has a right to reside in the unit under section 70B(2) of that Act, the sooner of the day the relative vacates the unit or the day that is 3 months after the date on which your right to reside in the unit under the lease is terminated. For simplicity, this document and any Prospective Costs Document given to you assume that the date of occupation of your unit and the commencement date of your lease are the same date, and that you cease to reside in the unit on the last day of the Exit Fee Period. However, this is subject to the terms of your residence contract and the Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Qld).

Part 12 – Reinstatement and renovation of the unit

12.1 Is the resident responsible for reinstatement of the unit when they leave the unit?

Yes No

Reinstatement work means replacements or repairs that are reasonably necessary to return the unit to the same condition it was in when the resident started occupation, apart from:

- fair wear and tear; and
- renovations and other changes to the condition of the unit carried out with agreement of the resident and operator.

Fair wear and tear includes a reasonable amount of wear and tear associated with the use of items commonly used in a retirement village. However, a resident is responsible for the cost of replacing a capital item of the retirement village if the resident deliberately damages the item or causes accelerated wear.

Entry and exit inspections and reports are undertaken by the operator and resident to assess the condition of the unit.

12.2 Is the resident responsible for renovation of the unit when they leave the unit?

No

Renovation means replacements or repairs other than reinstatement work.

By law, the operator is responsible for the cost of any renovation work on a former resident's unit, unless the residence contract provides for the resident to share in the capital gain on the sale of the resident's interest in the unit. Renovation costs are shared between the former resident and operator in the same proportion as any capital gain is to be shared under the residence contract.

Part 13– Capital gain or losses

13.1 When the resident's interest or right to reside in the unit is sold, does the resident share in the capital gain or capital loss on the resale of their unit?

No

An exit entitlement is the amount the operator may be required to pay the former resident under a residence contract after the right to reside is terminated and the former resident has left the unit.

14.1 How is the exit entitlement which the operator will pay the resident worked out?

The ingoing contribution paid by the departing resident less:

- (a) the Exit Fee
- (b) the cost of any reinstatement work
- (c) the cost of any other work for which the resident is responsible under the Lease including, subject to the Act, day-to-day maintenance, servicing, repairs, maintenance, replacements or removals that are required to be carried out to Variations or Existing Alterations and rectification of

	any consequential damage to the unit and reinstating the unit to its former layout and condition (d) outstanding General Services Charges, Maintenance Reserve Fund Contributions, Personal Services Charges or Car Park Licence Fees (if any) (e) Exit Administration Fee (f) the resident's share of the cost of any valuation of the right to reside in the unit (g) any other payments payable by the resident as provided in the Lease, the Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Qld) or any other agreement between the resident and the village operator that form part of the resident's residence contract or relate to the provision of services or goods to the resident in the village including any assistance monies (if applicable).
--	---

14.2 When is the exit entitlement payable?	By law, the operator must pay the exit entitlement to a former resident on or before the earliest of the following days: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the day stated in the residence contract <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ there is no date stated in the residence contract • 14 days after the settlement of the sale of the right to reside in the unit to the next resident or the operator • 18 months after the termination date of the resident's right to reside under the residence contract, even if the unit has not been resold, unless the operator has been granted an extension for payment by the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT). In addition, an operator is entitled to seek probate or letters of administration before paying the exit entitlement of a former resident who has died.

14.3 What is the turnover of units for sale in the village?	1 accommodation unit was vacant as at the end of financial year 2024. 0 accommodation units were resold during the financial year 2024. 1 new accommodation unit was sold (for the first time) during financial year 2024. 2.28 months was the average length of time to sell a unit over the last three financial years (Note: this period relates predominantly to the first-time sale of new units, measured from the time of their release to the market. (For the 2023 – 2024 year the average length of time to sell a unit was 2.3 months) Note: As a developing village, units are built in stages.
